

Ushahidi v2.X Developer Guide

Ushahidi v2.X is open-source software: anyone can contribute to it. The pages below explain how Ushahidi code is organised, how to contribute to it, and what's happening "under the hood".

You can also connect with the Ushahidi developer community through the Developer Mailing List and the "Ushahidi Dev Chat" Skypechat.

- Architecture
  - Database Description
  - Ushahidi REST API
- Development Process
  - Coding Style Guide
  - Issue Tracking and Product Roadmap
  - Localization - dev best practices
  - Our Git Repository
  - Writing Unit and Functional Tests
- Getting Development Started
  - Getting the Source Code from GitHub
  - Setting up the Development Environment
- Ushahidi Platform QA
  - Test Driven Development
- Ushahidi v2.X Under The Hood
  - Adding a new page
  - Alerts - Email and Mobile
  - Building a Custom OpenLayers Library
  - Database access
  - Extending the Ushahidi API
  - JSON Handling of POST
  - Localizations - under the hood
  - Managing CSS and JS in Ushahidi
  - Maps
  - Plugins - Developers Guide
  - Themes - Developers Guide
  - Ushahidi 2.X image and video handling